BROADWAY AT WALL STREET, NEW YORK CITY

EVENSONG

THE SEASON AFTER PENTECOST

JULY 25, 2019, 5:15PM

Almighty, everlasting God,
let our prayer in your sight
be as incense,
the lifting up of our hands
as the evening sacrifice.

Psalms 141:2

MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

CORE VALUES

Stewardship

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

Evensong is a version of Evening Prayer in which most of the service is sung. Evening Prayer, which begins on page 115 of the Book of Common Prayer, is a daily liturgy celebrated in the late afternoon or early evening. Like Morning Prayer—and in contrast to the Eucharist—the service may be led by a layperson. At Trinity Church, Evensong has an officiant who directs the assembly in prayer, volunteers who read the scripture, and a cantor who leads the singing of canticles, psalms, and hymns.

Officiant Let us sing from Psalm 7 responsively.

The Cantor sings the first two verses and then the People join as indicated.

Change notes as indicated by barlines and asterisks.

Cantor O LORD my God, I take refuge in | you; *
save and deliver me from all who pur- | sue me;

Lest like a lion they tear me in | pieces *
and snatch me away with none to de- | liver me.

All O LORD my God, if I have done these | things: *
if there is any wickedness in my | hands,
If I have repaid my friend with | evil, *
or plundered him who without cause is my | enemy;

Then let my enemy pursue and over- | take me, *
trample my life into the ground, and lay my honor in the | dust.

Stand up, O LORD, in your | wrath; *
rise up against the fury of my | enemies.
Awake, O my God, decree | justice; *
let the assembly of the peoples gather | round you.
Be seated on your lofty throne, O Most | High; *
O LORD, judge the | nations.
Give judgment for me according to my righteousness, O | LORD, *
and according to my innocence, O Most | High.
Let the malice of the wicked come to an end, _
but establish the | righteous; *
for you test the mind and heart, O righteous | God.

After the Psalm, all sing

All            Glory to the Father and to the | Son, *

THE FIRST READING

Acts 11:27—12:3

Please be seated.

The Officiant invites a volunteer to come to the eagle lectern to read.

Reader        A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

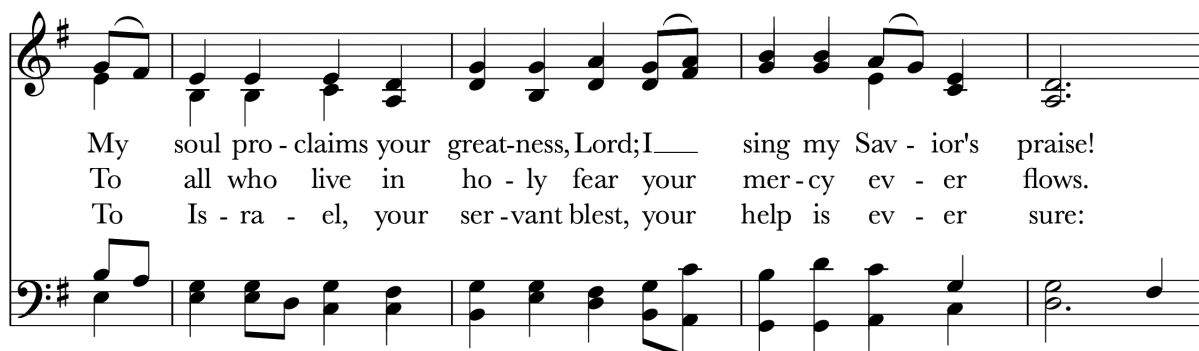

At that time prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. One of them named Agabus stood up and predicted by the Spirit that there would be a severe famine over all the world; and this took place during the reign of Claudius. The disciples determined that according to their ability, each would send relief to the believers living in Judea; this they did, sending it to the elders by Barnabas and Saul.

About that time King Herod laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church. He had James, the brother of John, killed with the sword. After he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. (This was during the festival of Unleavened Bread.)

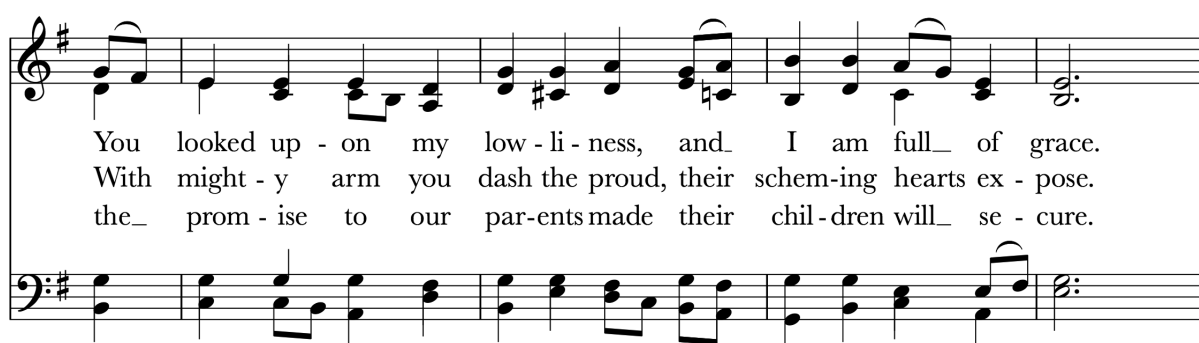

Here ends the Reading.

THE SECOND READING

Matthew 20:20-28

Please be seated.

The Officiant invites a volunteer to come to the eagle lectern to read.

Reader A Reading from the Gospel according to Matthew.

The mother of the sons of Zebedee came to Jesus with her sons, and kneeling before him, she asked a favor of him. And he said to her, "What do you want?" She said to him, "Declare that these two sons of mine will sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom." But Jesus answered, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They said to him, "We are able." He said to them, "You will indeed drink my cup, but to sit at my right hand and at my left, this is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father."

When the ten heard it, they were angry with the two brothers. But Jesus called them to him and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. It will not be so among you; but whoever wishes to be great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be your slave; just as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Here ends the Reading.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

OPERATION BACKPACK

*July 11–
August 5
at St. Paul's Chapel*

Trinity is partnering with Volunteers of America to collect backpacks and school supplies for students in 5th–8th grades who sleep in our city's shelters. The middle school years are a critical time—many homeless eighth graders drop out of school, often because they don't have the supplies they need.

Stop by St. Paul's Chapel for a shopping guide and return your donations from July 11–August 5. Join us for a Packing Party at 6pm, August 2, when we'll organize the supplies, make cards, write personal notes to students, and enjoy pizza.

Children in grades K-5 may join regardless of their musical experience or background.

Youth in grades 6-12 enter the choir through a short audition and written music theory assessment.

There is no fee to participate. Learn more and sign up at trinitywallstreet.org/youthchorus

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church.

This service of Evensong is based on Evening Prayer, Rite II, beginning on page 117 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), and other contemporary hymnals.

As part of Trinity Wall Street’s commitment to responsible stewardship of the earth’s resources, this publication is printed on paper that is manufactured with 100% post-consumer fibers.
