

THE DAY OF PENTECOST

JUNE 9, 2019, 9:00AM

TRINITY CHURCH

THE CHAPEL OF ALL SAINTS

BROADWAY AT WALL STREET, NEW YORK CITY

MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

WELCOME TO TRINITY CHURCH

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area for prayers at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

Our celebration today commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles, fifty days after the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. In the year of our Lord's crucifixion and resurrection that date was also fifty days after Passover and therefore coincided with the Jewish feast of Pentecost (literally "Five Weeks" after—Exodus 34:22; Deuteronomy 16:10) called the Feast of Weeks or Shavuot. Shavuot was originally an agricultural festival giving thanks for the "first fruits" of the early spring harvest (Lev 23; Exodus 23, 34).

By the early New Testament period, the Feast of Weeks had lost its agricultural association for the Jewish people. It had become a celebration of God's creation of God's people and the festival of their unique religious history. After the destruction of Jerusalem in AD 70, the festival focused exclusively on God's gracious gift of the Torah, the Law, on Mount Sinai. This continues to be the focus of the celebration in modern Judaism.

The Christian Feast of Pentecost was celebrated in Apostolic times according to the writings attributed to St. Irenæus and in those of Tertullian. Egeria, the fourth century pilgrim, gives a detailed account of the solemn manner in which Pentecost was observed at Jerusalem. The Apostolic Constitutions (4th century) describe Pentecost in the Eastern Churches as lasting one week, but in the West it was not kept with an octave (a celebration lasting 8 days) until much later.

The Day of Pentecost soon became, along with the Great Vigil of Easter a preferred time for the celebration of Holy Baptism. In England the feast was commonly called Whitsunday because of the white garments worn by those baptized at Pentecost.

Pentecost represents God's gracious, enabling presence actively at work among God's people, calling and enabling us to live out in dynamic ways what we are called to be and do in Jesus Christ. Like the Jewish Feast of Weeks it is a celebration of the history of our salvation and our empowerment to partner with God in it.

So it is that the Feast of Pentecost is celebrated as the birthday of the Church. On this Holy Day we receive those baptized into the Body of Christ, those making an adult profession of faith, those reaffirming their baptismal vows and those being received into the Anglican Communion. With them the whole Body of Christ makes a commitment to go where the Spirit blows, to burn with the fire of the Holy Spirit and to receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit for ministry in Christ's name.

PRAYER

CPP p. 66, adapted

Celebrant God be with you.
Let us pray.

God of grace and glory, by the power of the Holy Spirit set our hearts on fire with a new love for Christ, that we may be alive to the opportunities of our times and bear our witness with urgency and zeal.

Save us from complacency and from fear of new ways; inspire our minds with the vision of a world conformed to your justice and filled with your love; and stir our wills to pray and work until your will is done on earth as it is in heaven.

Please be seated.

Remain seated for the Short Scripture Readings and the Responsories that follow them.

SHORT SCRIPTURE READING

In the Beginning

Genesis 1:1-3, 5

Reader In the beginning: Hear the Word of God.

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

RESPONSORY

based on Psalm 104:1

Reader Bless the Holy One, O my soul;
O God, how excellent is your greatness:
People You are clothed with majesty and splendor.

SHORT SCRIPTURE READING

The Spirit guides and nurtures

Nehemiah 9:19-20

Reader The Spirit guides and nurtures: Hear the Word of God.

In your great mercies did not forsake your people in the wilderness; the pillar of cloud that led them in the way did not leave them by day, nor the pillar of fire by night that gave them light on the way by which they should go. You gave your good Spirit to instruct them, and did not withhold your manna from their mouths, and gave them water for their thirst.

RESPONSORY

based on Psalm 104:28

Reader All your creatures look to you:

People And you give them their food in due season.

SHORT SCRIPTURE READING

A new heart and a new spirit

Ezekiel 36:26-27

Reader A new heart and a new spirit: Hear the Word of God.

A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you; and I will remove from your body the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. I will put my Spirit within you, and make you follow my statutes and be careful to observe my ordinances.

RESPONSORY

based on Psalm 104:31

Reader You send forth your Spirit, and we are created:

People And so you renew the face of the earth.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

CW:R p. 92/BCP p. 360

Deacon What God has prepared for those who love God, has been revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything. Therefore, let us in penitence open our hearts to God, who has prepared good things for those who love God. (based on 1 Corinthians 2:9)

You raise the dead to life in the Spirit.

Lord, have mercy.

People Lord, have mercy.

Deacon You bring pardon and peace to the broken in heart.

Christ, have mercy.

People Christ, have mercy.

Deacon You make one by your Spirit the torn and divided.

Lord, have mercy.

People Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

SHORT LITANY TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

BCP p. 227

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST READING

Acts 2:1-21

Reader

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

"In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'"

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People

Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 14:8-17

Deacon

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon

Philip said to Jesus, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves.

"Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Daniel Simons

Silence follows the sermon.

THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS

INTRODUCTION

BCP:ACI p. 398, adapted

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant In our baptism we died with Christ and were buried with him, so that we might rise with him to a new life within the family of his Church. On this festival day of Pentecost we now renew the promises made at our baptism, to affirm our allegiance to Christ, our rejection of all that is evil, and our eager expectation of the gift of the Holy Spirit.

RENEWAL OF VOWS

BCP p. 292

Celebrant Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

People I do.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?
People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

All Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

BCP p. 361, adapted/p. 380/SL pp. 12, 16, adapted

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down on this day from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, and giving to your Church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the Gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

Hymnal S 125, adapted

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Bless'd is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: from A Community Mass, Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Celebrant

Worship and praise belong to you, the source of all life, the breath of all being. Your power sustains, your love restores, our broken world. You are unceasingly at work, from chaos bringing order and filling emptiness with life. Your Spirit is fire in us, purging our sin and warming our hearts to love. As children of your redeeming purpose, the seal of Christ is upon us and as a pledge of what is to come Christ has given the Spirit to dwell in our hearts.

Before he was given up to suffering and death, at supper with his disciples, Jesus took bread and offered you thanks. He broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying: "Take, eat. This is my Body: it is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup, offered you thanks, and gave it to them, saying: "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new covenant; it is poured out for you and for all that sins may be forgiven. Do this in remembrance of me."

We now obey his command:

All

We remember Christ's death,
 We proclaim Christ's resurrection,
 We await the coming of Christ in glory.

Celebrant

Send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be the Body and Blood of your Son, and upon us, that we may be kindled with the fire of your love and be renewed for the service of your Kingdom.

Empower all who are baptized into the fellowship of Christ's Body to live and work to your praise and glory. In your new creation, bring us into our heritage in the company of the Blessed Mary, Blessed Paul, the apostles, and prophets, and all our sisters and brothers living and departed.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

BCP p. 364

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

FRACTION

BCP p. 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life's journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

*As Communicants return from Communion they are offered a bookmark listing the Fruits of the Spirit.
On the reverse side one of the Fruits is printed—Communicants are invited to receive that gift prayerfully as the Holy Spirit's outpouring on them.*

Those not receiving Communion are invited to receive a bookmark as they leave.

Core Values

In June we focus on the Core Value of Stewardship

2019 LIVING THE VALUES QUIET RETREATS

Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. Our time at the retreats will begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve

September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall

November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)

For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation

The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update

Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: After months of digging, workers are in a "build back" phase. Workers are pouring concrete in the chancel and the chancel steps have been put in place. Piping for electrical, data, and security conduits are in place and ready to accommodate the organ. Plaster decorations are being created for columns. The altar and reredos are being repaired, finished, and cleaned. Stained glass is expected to be installed soon. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.
