

OFFICIANT/CANTOR SCRIPT

EVENSONG

THE SEASON OF EASTER

THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 2019

CHAPEL OF ALL SAINTS, 5:15PM

PRELUDE

The organist plays an improvisation.

WELCOME

The Officiant stands and faces the People, welcoming them using these or similar words:

Officiant Welcome to the historic Chapel of All Saints for Evensong.
As you might know, Evensong is Evening Prayer which is chanted with music. We all pray Evensong together, so please follow along in your bulletin and join in as indicated and when you feel comfortable doing so.

At two points in the service tonight, we will ask for a volunteer to come forward to read the appointed reading of scripture. Anyone can volunteer to read, even if you have never done this before! So just raise your hand at that point if you feel called to do so.

There is a notebook in the lectern that you will read from, so there is no need to bring your bulletin with you.

Now let's pause and take a few breaths before we start with tonight's service of Evensong.

Silence is kept.

The Officiant looks at the notebook in the lectern to make sure that it's ready and turned to tab 1.

Officiant Please stand as you are able.

creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the holy catholic Church,

the communion of saints,

the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body,

and the life everlasting. Amen.
