

SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

JULY 28, 2019, 11:15AM

Compassion

If I can stop one heart from breaking,
I shall not live in vain;
If I can ease one life the aching,
Or cool one pain,
Or help one fainting robin
Unto his nest again,
I shall not live in vain.

Emily Dickinson

ST. PAUL'S CHAPEL

BROADWAY AND FULTON STREET, NEW YORK CITY

MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

WELCOME TO ST. PAUL'S CHAPEL

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go through the doors closest to the pulpit during communion time. A prayer minister will meet you in the foyer.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

You were called to freedom, brothers and sisters;
only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another.

For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment,

"You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Galatians 5:13-14

Bear one another's burdens,
and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:2

Over the last several years Churches of many denominations, including many within the Anglican Communion, have designated a Season of Compassion. It has usually been observed for a few weeks in the Season after Pentecost, sometime between July and October.

Church leaders, Conventions and Synods have called Christians to keep, with self-examination and repentance, renewed commitment and faithfulness, A Solemn Season of Compassion, not to reduce the ministry of Compassion to several weeks of ritual observance, but to call the People of God to return to the ministry they share with their Lord:

To bring good news to the poor;
to proclaim release to the captives;
recovery of sight to the blind;
to let the oppressed go free;
and to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.

Isaiah 61:1 and Luke 4:18-19

Our Sunday liturgy is always a thanksgiving to God for all the blessings of this life, especially for our creation, redemption and preservation in Jesus Christ. For the next three Sundays our thanksgiving will be informed by our recognition that we are called to the ministry of compassion. Compassion is one of our Core Values, and in these weeks, we shall enter into worship ready to hear again the call to be agents of Christ's compassion, to be ministers of Christ's kindness and care.

The Prayers of the People for the Season of Compassion were composed by staff and volunteers of the Pastoral Care and Community Ministry of Trinity Church, and the Concluding Collects were composed by participants in the Core Value Retreat on Compassion in May this year.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST READING

Hosea 1:2-10

Reader A Reading from the Book of Hosea.

When the LORD first spoke through Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea, "Go, take for yourself a wife of whoredom and have children of whoredom, for the land commits great whoredom by forsaking the LORD." So he went and took Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

And the LORD said to him, "Name him Jezreel; for in a little while I will punish the house of Jehu for the blood of Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel. On that day I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel."

She conceived again and bore a daughter. Then the LORD said to him, "Name her Lo-ruhamah, for I will no longer have pity on the house of Israel or forgive them. But I will have pity on the house of Judah, and I will save them by the LORD their God; I will not save them by bow, or by sword, or by war, or by horses, or by horsemen."

When she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said, "Name him Lo-ammi, for you are not my people and I am not your God."

Yet the number of the people of Israel shall be like the sand of the sea, which can be neither measured nor numbered; and in the place where it was said to them, "You are not my people," it shall be said to them, "Children of the living God."

People Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM

Psalm 85:1-5, 7-8, 11

The choir sings the refrain, then all repeat the refrain and sing as indicated.

Choir You have been gracious to your land, O God; *
you have restored the good fortune of Jacob.
You have forgiven the iniquity of your people *
and blotted out all their sins.
You have withdrawn all your fury *
and turned yourself from your wrathful indignation.
Restore us then, O God our Savior; *
let your anger depart from us.

All REFRAIN

Choir Will you be displeased with us for ever; *
will you prolong your anger from age to age?
Show us your mercy, O God, *
and grant us your salvation.
I will listen to what you are saying, *
for you are speaking peace to your faithful people and to those who turn their hearts to you.
Truth shall spring up from the earth, *
and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

THE SECOND READING

Colossians 2:6-19

Reader A Reading from the Letter to the Colossians.

As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving. See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ.

For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have come to fullness in him, who is the head of every ruler and authority. In him also you were circumcised with a spiritual circumcision, by putting off the body of the flesh in the circumcision of Christ; when you were buried with him in baptism, you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.

And when you were dead in trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with him, when he forgave us all our trespasses, erasing the record that stood against us with its legal demands. He set this aside, nailing it to the cross.

He disarmed the rulers and authorities and made a public example of them, triumphing over them in it.

Therefore do not let anyone condemn you in matters of food and drink or of observing festivals, new moons, or sabbaths. These are only a shadow of what is to come, but the substance belongs to Christ. Do not let anyone disqualify you, insisting on self-abasement and worship of angels, dwelling on visions, puffed up without cause by a human way of thinking, and not holding fast to the head, from whom the whole body, nourished and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows with a growth that is from God.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People

Thanks be to God.

Reader

After the reading of the Gospel, all children are invited to follow the cross to Children's Chapel. They will return at the Peace.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 11:1-13

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples." He said to them, "When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial."

And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him.' And he answers from within, 'Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.' I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

"So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The darkness deepens; Lord with me abide.
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

O Thou who changest not, abide with me.
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me. Amen.

Celebrant

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Onlybegotten and Beloved One.

For in these last days you sent Christ to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to Jesus Christ in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through Christ, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with [_____ and] all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion. We receive at one station at the front of the center aisle and return to our seats by the side aisles.

 you have united us
 with Christ and one another;
 and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
 Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Reflecting on Compassion

During this season of Pentecost, Trinity will observe “mini-seasons” to magnify the core values of Compassion, Creation as an aspect of our Core Values of Integrity and Social Justice, and Stewardship. During the worship services on Sundays, July 21, July 28, and August 3, we’re paying particular attention to Compassion, with enhanced prayers of the people and a moment of reflection. The following quotations, poems, and art are intended to provide another gateway to reflection over the next several weeks.

“All major religious traditions carry basically the same message: that is love, compassion, and forgiveness.

The important thing is they should be part of our daily lives.” –Dalai Lama

The Bodhisattva of Infinite Compassion

This sculpture is a treasured image of the Bodhisattva of Compassion (Guanyin in Chinese, Avalokiteshvara in Sanskrit). It possibly dates from the Northern Song (960-1127) dynasty. It is now in The Metropolitan Museum of Art.

A “bodhisattva” is a being so compassionate that it refrains from entering nirvana (a state of sacred peace) so it can stay in this world and save others. A bodhisattva has generated a “bodhicitta”—a wish or a longing to let go of fears and habits and thus be of benefit to all through compassion. Guanyin, the Bodhisattva of Compassion, the divine figure that responds most directly to human prayers, became the most beloved Buddhist deity after Buddhism arrived in China from India in the first century.

In Twelve Steps to a Compassionate Life, Karen Armstrong highlights the four elements of “immeasurable” love described by the Buddha: “loving kindness”—the desire to bring happiness to all sentient beings; “compassion”—the resolve to liberate all creatures from their pain; “sympathetic joy”—delight in the happiness of others; and “even-mindedness”—the ability to love all beings equally and impartially.

Reflections on the Bodhisattva and “The Return of the Prodigal Son” written by John McCann and Beverly Bell.

“Kindness” by Naomi Shihab Nye

Before you know what kindness really is you must lose things, feel the future dissolve in a moment
like salt in a weakened broth.
What you held in your hand,
what you counted and carefully saved,
all this must go so you know how desolate the landscape can be between the regions of kindness.
How you ride and ride
thinking the bus will never stop,
the passengers eating maize and chicken will stare out the window forever.

Before you learn the tender gravity of kindness,
you must travel where the Indian in a white poncho
lies dead by the side of the road.
You must see how this could be you,
how he too was someone who journeyed through the night with plans and the simple breath that kept him alive.

Before you know kindness as the deepest thing inside,
you must know sorrow as the other deepest thing.
You must wake up with sorrow.
You must speak to it till your voice catches the thread of all sorrows and you see the size of the cloth.

Then it is only kindness that makes sense anymore,
only kindness that ties your shoes and sends you out into the day to mail letters and purchase bread, only kindness that raises its head from the crowd of the world to say It is I you have been looking for,
and then goes with you everywhere
like a shadow or a friend.

Poets.org notes that “Naomi Shihab Nye gives voice to her experience as an Arab-American through poems about heritage and peace that overflow with a humanitarian spirit.”

Compassion means full immersion in the condition of being human. –Henri J.M. Nouwen

“The Return of the Prodigal Son” by Rembrandt van Rijn

Much has been written about this painting, which was probably completed within two years of the artist's death in 1669. Measuring 6 feet by 8 feet, Rembrandt's “Prodigal Son” hangs in the State Hermitage Museum in St. Petersburg.

Rembrandt brings the parable (Luke 15: 11-32) to life for us, but over the years observers have pointed to details we might easily miss. For instance, one of the father's hands seems larger and stronger, while the other is smaller and more tender. The son's clothes are in shreds, his sandals are worn (and one has fallen from his foot), and his head may have been shaved. Though he has squandered his property, the son has kept his sword—perhaps to hold on to his memories of home. Meanwhile, his older brother stands by in his finery, hands crossed. He is not yet ready to forgive.

The Dutch theologian and writer Henri Nouwen wrote a book on how seeing and studying this masterpiece—first as a poster in France and then later the original in Russia—changed his life. Indeed the art historian Kenneth Clark said, “those who have seen the original in St. Petersburg may be forgiven for claiming [it] as the greatest picture ever painted.” But we do not need to see the original to sense the father's compassion, which Rembrandt captures so beautifully. The father's face could be the face of God, offering all of us refuge.

OPERATION BACKPACK

*July 11–
August 5
at St. Paul's Chapel*

Trinity is partnering with Volunteers of America to collect backpacks and school supplies for students in 5th–8th grades who sleep in our city's shelters. The middle school years are a critical time—many homeless eighth graders drop out of school, often because they don't have the supplies they need.

Stop by St. Paul's Chapel for a shopping guide and return your donations from July 11–August 5. Join us for a Packing Party at 6pm, August 2, when we'll organize the supplies, make cards, write personal notes to students, and enjoy pizza.

Congregational Voice

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore" (Psalms 121 KJV). This is my favorite verse because it reminds me where the source of everything I need can be found and that I am protected. —Joyce E. Young

Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Texts marked as adapted have been more or less substantially altered from the cited source material by the Rev. Bruce Jenneker. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff and volunteers, as well as publications including Enriching Our Worship 1 (EOW 1), An Anglican Prayer Book 1989 (APB), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources.

Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP), and other contemporary hymnals.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
