HONORING AND REMEMBERING
LGBTQ LIVES LOST TO VIOLENCE

ST. PAUL'S CHAPEL

BROADWAY AND FULTON STREET, NEW YORK CITY

MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

WELCOME TO ST. PAUL'S CHAPEL

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

In an average year, in the U.S. over 10,300 violent hate crimes involve a gun—more than 28 each day. The vast majority of hate crimes are directed against communities of color, religious minorities, and LGBTQ people.¹

Today we gather to remember and honor all the LGBTQ lives lost to homophobia, hate crimes, and gun violence, here in the United States and in every community all across our world.

We remember especially the anniversary of the mass shooting at the Pulse nightclub in Orlando, Florida, in which 49 people were killed and 53 others wounded.

We celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall Riots, a series of spontaneous demonstrations by members of the Gay community against a police raid that took place in the early morning hours of June 28, 1969, at the Stonewall Inn in Greenwich Village. The Riots are widely considered to constitute the most important event leading to the gay liberation movement and the modern fight for LGBTQ rights in the United States.²

We, like you, remember trying to make sense of the news each time we learned of yet another violent hate crime. We know that hate crimes targeting LGBTQ persons are most often caused by people struggling with their own sexual orientation. It makes remembrances like this one complex.

The prejudices of our cultures run like the blood in our veins.

We are here today to resist homophobia.

We are here to actively create cultures of love and acceptance.

We are here to remember all the beautiful people whose full flourishing will not be witnessed on this earth. We are here to defy those who in rage, armed with legally obtained weapons, took their lives.

We are here because our safety as LGBTQ persons in the United States often feels threatened here in New York City today.

We are here today to pray for the world that waits to be born.

IN MEMORIAM

Please continue standing as you are able.

Preacher Hear, O my people, the word of the Lord: teach to your people a dirge, and everyone to their neighbor a lament. "Death has come up into our windows, it has entered our citadels, to cut off the children from the streets and the young people from the squares." Thus says the Lord: Do not let the wise boast in their wisdom, do not let the mighty boast in their might, do not let the wealthy boast in their wealth; but let those who boast boast in this, that they understand and know me, that I am the Lord; that I act with steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth. (based on Jeremiah 9:20-21, 23-24)

Celebrant Let us remember and honor all the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgendered and Queer people who have lost their lives lost to homophobia, hate crimes, and gun violence.

Silence

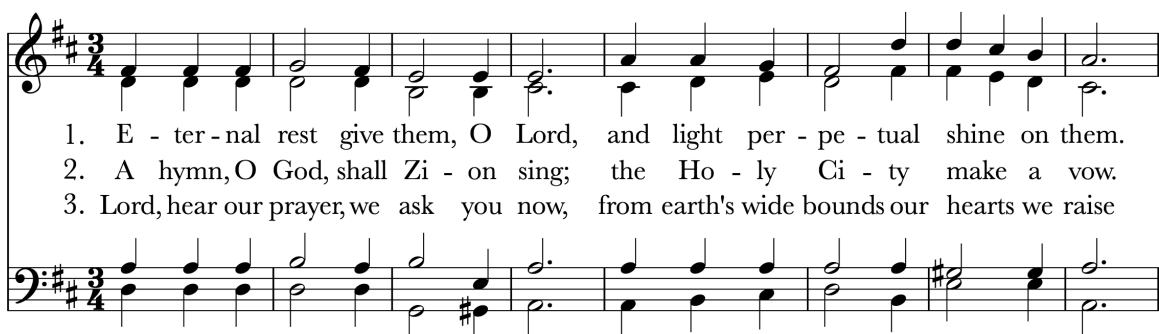

Celebrant Hear our prayer, O God of infinite compassion and love, for those who have died and receive them into the joy of your eternal kingdom, where there is no pain or death.

HYMN

Celebrant Hear our prayer also for those whose faith has been shaken; for those who stand bewildered and fearful in the midst of unending tragedy; for everyone injured, and for all who are bereaved and broken-hearted.

All We cry to you O God,
there is none other to help.

In silence a Candle is lighted for all those whose faith has been shaken, who are injured or bereaved.

Celebrant Hear our prayer also for the world we have made of the creation you entrusted to us: where you endowed us with dignity, we have chosen prejudice; where you made us one family, we have thrown down and protected barriers to separate and divide us; where taught us love and peace, we have chosen violence and hatred.

All We cry to you O God,
there is none other to help.

In silence a Candle is lighted for our world at risk, in peril, torn apart.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

PSALM 139:1-6

The choir sings the refrain, then all repeat the refrain and sing as indicated.

Choir

O God, you have searched me out and known me; *
you know my sitting down and my rising up;
you discern my thoughts from afar.

You trace my journeys and my resting-places *
and are acquainted with all my ways.

Indeed, there is not a word on my lips, *
but you, O God, know it altogether.

You press upon me behind and before *
and lay your hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; *
it is so high that I cannot attain to it.

Where can I go then from your Spirit; *
where can I flee from your presence?

EXCERPT FROM A ROLLING STONE ARTICLE

Reader

Listen to an excerpt from a Rolling Stone article.

On Sunday, November 11th 2018, a group of approximately 80 Central American migrants, the majority of whom identify as LGBTQ arrived in the coastal city of Tijuana, Mexico, just south of the U.S.-Mexico border. They are part of the massive caravan of more than 3,600 people traveling north on foot in hopes of being granted asylum in the U.S., but this group broke off after allegedly facing discriminatory treatment from other travelers and local residents.

“Whenever we arrived at a stopping point the LGBT community was the last to be taken into account in every way. So, our goal was to change that and say, ‘This time we are going to be first,’” Carlos Mejia, who is from Honduras, said at a press conference on Sunday.

PSALM 139:8-13

All sing the refrain as indicated.

Choir

If I take the wings of the morning *
and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,

Even there your hand will lead me *
and your right hand hold me fast.

If I say, "Surely the darkness will cover me, *
and the light around me turn to night,"

Darkness is not dark to you;
the night is as bright as the day; *
darkness and light to you are both alike.

For you yourself created my inmost parts; *
you knit me together in my mother's womb.

I will thank you because I am marvelously made; *
your works are wonderful, and I know it well.

EXCERPT FROM A STORYCORPS ARTICLE ABOUT DARNELL MOORE³

Reader

Listen to an excerpt from a StoryCorps article about Darnell Moore.

"My grandmother would send us to the store, and I hated going to the store because I know that somewhere between my grandmama's house and the store there would be somebody wanting to pick on me for some reason."

One day, Moore was returning from the store in broad daylight and saw a group of boys walking towards him. "I knew that something was going to happen," he says. "As they approached me they called me names—faggot, sissy—and they had a milk carton. I didn't know what it was filled with, but it spilled a bit. And it was gasoline."

Moore's next-door neighbor was one of the boys in the group. "He emptied the gasoline on me," Moore says. "I recall him attempting to light a match and it just wouldn't light. That happened about three times."

3 Darnell L. Moore is an American writer and activist whose work is informed by anti-racist, feminist, queer of color, and anti-colonial thought and advocacy.

PSALM 139:14-17

All sing the refrain as indicated.

Choir My body was not hidden from you, *
 while I was being made in secret
 and woven in the depths of the earth.

 Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb;
 all of them were written in your book; *
 they were fashioned day by day,
 when as yet there was none of them.

 How deep I find your thoughts, O God; *
 how great is the sum of them!

 If I were to count them, they would be more in number than the sand; *
 to count them all, my life span would need to be like yours.

A READING FROM SCRIPTURE

Romans 8:35-39

Reader A Reading from Paul's letter to the Romans.

 Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, "For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered."

 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

People Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

“Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

“Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

“Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

Let the River Run

Words and music by Carly Simon (b. 1945), arr. Kirby Shaw (b. 1941)

We're coming to the edge,
Running on the water,
Coming through the fog,
Your sons and daughters.

Let the river run,
Let all the dreamers
Wake the nation.
Come, the New Jerusalem.

Silver cities rise,
The morning lights
The streets that meet them,
And sirens call them on
With a song.

It's asking for the taking.
Trembling, shaking.
Oh, my heart is aching.

We're coming to the edge,
Running on the water,
Coming through the fog,
Your sons and daughters.

We the great and small
Stand on a star
And blaze a trail of desire
Through the dark'ning dawn.

It's asking for the taking.
Come run with me now,
The sky is the color of blue
You've never even seen
In the eyes of your lover.

Let the river run,
Let all the dreamers
Wake the nation.
Come, the New Jerusalem.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love.

Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever.

All

AMEN.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

Do Not Be Afraid

Philip Stopford (b. 1977)

Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you.
I have called you by your name; you are mine.
When you walk through the waters, I'll be with you;
you will never sink beneath the waves.

When the fire is burning all around you,
you will never be consumed by the flames.
When the fear of loneliness is looming,
then remember I am at your side.

When you dwell in the exile of a stranger,
remember you are precious in my eyes.
You are mine, O my child, I am your Father,
and I love you with a perfect love.

But lo! there breaks a yet more glo - rious day; the

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update

Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: After months of digging, workers are in a “build back” phase. Workers are pouring concrete in the chancel and the chancel steps have been put in place. Piping for electrical, data, and security conduits are in place and ready to accommodate the organ. Plaster decorations are being created for columns. The altar and reredos are being repaired, finished, and cleaned. Stained glass is expected to be installed soon. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.
