Good morning Scott,
cc: Worship leader, Rev Jim Pope

Thank you once again for graciously allowing us use of your beautiful chapel for our group devotions on June 16 and 17. I understand that it will be tight, but we will make it work. Several of us group leaders can stand as needed.

Per our text conversation, here is our plan.

Sunday, June 16...2:30 pm devotion
Monday, June 17...9:30 am devotion

We will have about 55 people attending (including our worship leader). We make it optional but typically, all will attend.

It typically includes a short liturgy, a hymn, and a brief message/sermonette...about 15 minutes.

We have an excellent organist in our group...retired organ professor John Nolte. He would be glad to play the hymn on the organ if it is OK with you. You mentioned that perhaps he should reach out to your music director to check on that? Can you reply with his/her contact info? If it doesn't work, we can certainly sing it acapella.

Two other questions...I understand the main sanctuary is under construction. Where/how do we enter the chapel? We'd like to provide a gift to Trinity as an expression of thanks? Can we make a check out to Trinity?

Again, our sincere thanks!

Blessings,
Steve Balza
